Essential Tenets Presbyterians have been of two minds about essential tenets. We recognize that just as there are some central and foundational truths of the gospel affirmed by Christians everywhere, so too there are particular understandings of the gospel that define the Presbyterian and Reformed tradition.

As to Jake's question; the ECO is not a confessional church, in the sense that her office bearers must strictly subscribe to the confessional statements in the book of confessions. Thus an elder could tell the Presbytery that he accepts the Heidelberg and Westminster and receives the other confessions only in so far as they do not contradict the historic orthodox confessions.
